

EXAM NUMBERS

Examination Numbers: Exam numbers are used in place of student names on all exams to protect student anonymity. A new exam number is assigned for every semester and summer session that a student is in attendance at Gonzaga University School of Law. New examination numbers are assigned to students the second week of class. An email will be sent to all students when exam numbers have been assigned. It is the student's responsibility to sign on to ZAGWEB and get their current semester exam number after receiving the notification email. Exam numbers will not be available at the Registrar's office.
