

Peace and Economics in the Changing World Order

March 23, 2012

8:15 - 8:45 Registration and Breakfast

8:45 - 9:00 Opening Remarks: (GJIL Editor in Chief, Haley Alexander; Gonzaga School of Law Dean Jane Korn; Professor Upendra Acharya)

9:00 - 9:20 Introduction to the Future of Peace and Economics in International Law

International Trade and Economic Law Session

9:20 - 10:50 Panel 1: International Economic Law in Practice

Shannon Votava: Practical Aspects of International Business in a Globalized World

Nelson Dong: U.S. Embargoes and Export Controls

Bill Bryant: International Markets and Trade Barriers

10:50 - 11:00 Break

11:00 - 12:30 Panel 2: International Economic Law and Developing Countries

Professor Rose Xinjuan Zhang: China and the Global Economy

Professor Kevin Kennedy: Trade Preference Programs for Developing Countries in the 21st Century

Professor James Nafziger: Cultural Material: Import and Export Controls

12:30 - 1:30 Lunch Break

International Peace and Security Session

1:30 - 3:00 Panel 1: The Middle East and International Security

Professor Cynthia Eid: Peace and Security in Palestine: The International Court of Justice and Israel's Wall

Professor Salem Nasser: The Special Tribunal for Lebanon: Tension between International Politics and Law in the Middle East

Professor Fady Fadel: The Legal Framework of the Relationship between the Security Council and the Special Tribunal for Lebanon (STL): Guarantees or Sword of Damocles?

3:00 - 3:10 Break

3:10 - 4:40 Panel 2: Transforming International Peace and Security

Dr. A. Raghunadha Reddy: International Peace and Maritime Piracy
Barah Mikail: The “Arab Spring,” Foreign Interests, and the Future of International Security
Professor Upendra Acharya: Law and Ethics of International Peace and Security

4:40 - 5:00 Concluding Remarks